Yes the yearbook is done and yes, it is comic book themed. Why? Well the better question is why not? I mean superheroes, superpowers, and some serious action packed pages well how doesn't this relate to what this yearbook has in store for you?

From our super genius honor students to the super speedy track stars, we deemed it appropriate for this book to portray just how well everyone at EPS relates to superheroes.

FROM THE YEARBOOK

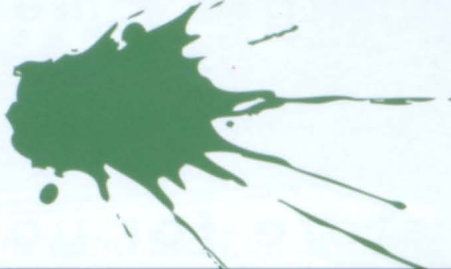

THE NEW CARDINAL

In the fall of 2011, a group of current students, staff, and alumni got together to create the new logo. After reviewing many great submissions, the logo you see was chosen. Dawn (VanGarven) Yemma, 1979 graduate of EHS, designed the logo that will last many more generations.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

The background of the cover is white. At the top and bottom, there are horizontal bands of blue polka dots of varying sizes. In the center, there is a large, black, hand-drawn style spiral that winds inward. To the right of the spiral is a blue, translucent sphere with black outlines and shading, giving it a three-dimensional appearance. The title 'STUDENT' is written in a serif font, underlined, and 'ACTIVITIES' is written in a similar serif font, also underlined, positioned above and below the central graphic respectively.

SENIOR CLASS POEM

Brittany Barton has tons of class. She was also inseparable with our friend Brittany Glass.

Abbie is a pacifist and doesn't like car. She was our Homecoming Queen and made the crown roar.

April likes sparkles, clothes and fashion but waitressing at Fireside was her real passion.

Jon is addicted to energy drinks. He runs around like crazy and very rarely thinks.

Everyone in English loves Symaria Brown and when she opens her joke app it's about to go down.

Kayla is a fan of cold Mountain Dew. Did I forget to mention she's a fan of polar bears too?

Darian drives a big red hummer. You can catch her at her new lake house in the summer.

You'll always hear Brady and his loud tunes. He like to hang out with Cheese and chase coons.

Our friendship with Paxton runs really deep. She is also an expert on doing the Facebook creep.

Brittany Glass always had an awesome sense of fashion but the best quality that she had was of compassion.

Jeremy always had an interest in sports. You could usually find him on the golf course.

Mariah always had a smile on her face in the hall and she loved to shop up the boys when they played b-ball.

If you're an animal, challenge Crysta if you dare. The only thing crazier than she is her ever changing hair.

You can usually find Corey fishing for some Northern Pike or you could find him around town riding his bike.

On the ice Bobbi scores lots of goals. She also like to watch the cowboys ride the bulls.

Matthew enjoyed playing his Xbox. If you ask him about his job as Char's I'm sure he'll say it rocks.

When Seth hit that culvert, he totaled his sled. Luckily he had a helmet on his head.

On the field Jordan was one of the best linebackers, but on Sunday you could catch him watching the Green Bay Packers.

Alex spends his free time hunting and chasing coons, otherwise you can find him rapping to hip hop tunes.

Brianna couldn't put a book down once she began to start; she also had a love for drawing and art.

Emily's hair controversy that almost left people dead, even though the argument was whether it was orange or red.
